

New-Orleans, Dec: 22 / 34

Dear Mother

I arrived here this day with the full expectation of meeting my family but was disappointed they having not yet arrived I shall wait here three or four days for them I am well and am glad to hear that you are all well I would give you an account of this great city but time will not allow it - as soon as they arrive I shall write no more now as I am in a hurry.

Yours ever
James L. Fox

